

UNIVERSITAS SCIENTIARUM SZEGEDIENSIS
SZEGEDI TUDOMÁNYEGYETEM
Béla Bartók Faculty of Arts

I. Performance (BA)

Specialisations: Piano, Violin, Guitar, Flute, Trombone, Classical singing

Instrumental and singing training. After the successful completion of the program the student gets the degree, which is necessary to the application in the master program.

- Period of the training: 6 semesters
- Amount of the application fee: 35 Euro/programme
- Amount of the tuition fee: 5000 Euro/academic year
- Examination fee: 100 Euro/one-time
- Entry requirements:
 - High school final examination certificate (with official translation in English language)
 - Document to the certify foreign language (English) skills (minimum level: B2): language exam certificate or IELTS (min. 5.5) certificate
 - A demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements indicated on the following website: www.u-szeged-music.com/en/admission-requirements/

Application and admission procedure: The applicant must submit the completed application form in English language and the copies of the documents about the qualifications and foreign language skills. The applicant also has to submit a demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements. If the documents of the applicant are adequate to the entry requirements and if the departmental opinion is positive in virtue of the entrance performance, the applicant will be admitted to the Faculty of Music.

Graduation (conditions of receiving the diploma): The undergraduate student must comply with the defined course syllabus model throughout the 6 semesters. Only those students are eligible to take the final exam, who have acquired the pre-degree certificate, namely, having acquired all required credits related to the undergraduate training, as well as fulfilled the elective courses within the elective course block. In the event of missing credits, those must be acquired by the undergraduate student in a new semester. The examination procedures during the studies are the following: concert exam for the main subject and chamber music; written/oral/practical report or exam, respectively; and final exam at the end of the studies. The final exam for undergraduate training is an approximately 45 minute diploma concert, consisting of a freely chosen program that represents a minimum of three different classical musical styles. The fulfilment of the above requirements are mandatory.

Obtainable qualifications:

Classical Instrumental Music Performer (Piano); Classical Instrumental Music Performer (Violin); Classical Instrumental Music Performer (Guitar); Classical Instrumental Music Performer (Flute); Classical Instrumental Music Performer (Trombone); Classical Music Singer

UNIVERSITAS SCIENTIARUM SZEGEDIENSIS
SZEGEDI TUDOMÁNYEGYETEM
Béla Bartók Faculty of Arts

II. Classical Musical Instrumental Performance (MA)

Specialisations: Piano, Violin, Cello, Guitar, Trombone

Instrumental training. After the successful completion of the program the student gets an instrumental artist degree.

- Period of the training: 4 semesters
- Amount of the application fee: 35 Euro/programme
- Amount of the tuition fee: 5000 Euro/academic year
- Examination fee: 100 Euro/one-time
- Entry requirements:
 - BA degree acquired on the equivalent specialisation (with official translation in English language)
 - Document to certify of the foreign language (English) skills (minimum level: B2): language exam certificate or IELTS (min. 5.5) certificate
 - A demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements indicated on this website: www.u-szeged-music.com/en/admission-requirements/

Application and admission procedure: The applicant must submit the completed application form in English language and the copies of the documents about the qualifications and foreign language skills. The applicant also has to submit a demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements. If the documents of the applicant are adequate to the entry requirements and if the departmental opinion is positive in virtue of the entrance performance, the applicant will be admitted to the Faculty of Music.

Graduation (conditions of receiving the diploma): The examination procedures during the studies are the following: concert exam for the main subject and chamber music; written/oral/practical report or exam, respectively; and final exam at the end of the studies. In Master training awarding of the diploma is contingent upon the acquisition of the pre-degree certificate and completion of the final exam. In the event of missing credits, those must be acquired in a new semester. The final exam is an approximately 50-70 minute diploma concert, consisting of a freely chosen program that represents a minimum of three different classical musical styles. The fulfilment of these requirements are mandatory.

Obtainable qualifications:

Pianist; Violinist; Cellist; Guitarist; Trombonist

UNIVERSITAS SCIENTIARUM SZEGEDIENSIS
SZEGEDI TUDOMÁNYEGYETEM
Béla Bartók Faculty of Arts

III. Classical Singing (MA)

Specialisations: Opera Singing, Oratorio and Song Performance

Singing training. After the successful completion of the program the student gets a singing artist degree.

- Period of the training: 4 semesters
- Amount of the application fee: 35 Euro/programme
- Amount of the tuition fee: 5000 Euro/academic year
- Examination fee: 100 Euro/one-time
- Entry requirements:
 - BA degree acquired on the equivalent specialisation (with official translation in English language)
 - Document to the certify of the foreign language (English) skills (minimum level: B2): language exam certificate or IELTS (min. 5.5) certificate
 - A demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements indicated on this website: www.u-szeged-music.com/en/admission-requirements/

Application and admission procedure: The applicant must submit the completed application form in English language and the copies of the documents about the qualifications and foreign language skills. The applicant also has to submit a demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements. If the documents of the applicant are adequate to the entry requirements and if the departmental opinion is positive in virtue of the entrance performance, the applicant will be admitted to the Faculty of Music.

Graduation (conditions of receiving the diploma): The examination procedures during the studies are the following: concert exam for the main subject and chamber music; written/oral/practical report or exam, respectively; and final exam at the end of the studies. In Master training awarding of the diploma is contingent upon the acquisition of the pre-degree certificate and completion of the final exam. In the event of missing credits, those must be acquired in a new semester. The final exam is an approximately 50-70 minute diploma concert, consisting of a freely chosen program that represents a minimum of three different classical musical styles. The fulfilment of these requirements are mandatory.

Obtainable qualifications:

Opera singer; Oratorio and song performer

UNIVERSITAS SCIENTIARUM SZEGEDIENSIS
SZEGEDI TUDOMÁNYEGYETEM
Béla Bartók Faculty of Arts

IV. Preparatory year

Specialisations: Piano, Organ, Harpsichord, Harp, Violin, Viola, Cello, Double bass, Guitar, Oboe, Flute, Clarinet, Bassoon, Recorder, Trumpet, French horn, Trombone, Tuba, Percussion, Singing

1 year long instrumental and singing training, which prepares the students for the admission exam of the Performance (BA) program.

- Period of the training: 2 semesters
- Amount of the application fee: 35 Euro/programme
- Amount of the tuition fee: 5300 Euro/academic year
- Examination fee: 100 Euro/one-time
- Entry requirements:
 - High school examination certificate (with official translation in English language)
 - Document to certify of the foreign language skills (minimum level: B2): language exam certificate or IELTS (min. 5.5) certificate
 - A demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements indicated on this website: www.u-szeged-music.com/en/admission-requirements/

Application and admission procedure:

The applicant must submit the completed application form in English language and the copies of the documents about the qualifications and foreign language skills. The applicant also has to submit a demo recording with the performance of the admission audition requirements. If the documents of the applicant are adequate to the entry requirements and if the departmental opinion is positive in virtue of the entrance performance, the applicant will be admitted to the Faculty of Music.